Special Screening of Darkest Hour with guest speaker
Andrew Lloyd, Group Captain, RAF
at the Air Force Museum Theatre

Dayton, Ohio – April 16, 2018: The Living History Film Series event for April will feature Darkest Hour and guest speaker Andrew Lloyd, Group Captain RAF, Royal Air Force Exchange Officer, on April 26th at 6:30 p.m. at the Air Force Museum Theatre, located inside the National Museum of the U.S. Air Force™. Tickets are only $12 ($10 for Friends Members) and can be purchased here. Doors open at 6:00 p.m.

During the early days of World War II, the fate of Western Europe hangs on the newly-appointed British Prime Minister Winston Churchill, who must decide whether to negotiate with Adolf Hitler, or fight on against incredible odds knowing that it could mean a humiliating defeat for Britain and its empire. Actor Gary Oldman won an Oscar for Best Performance by an Actor in a Leading Role for his portrayal of Churchill.

Group Captain Lloyd is the Deputy Director of Logistics (WPAFB), Air Force Sustainment Center (AFSC). He is the operational lead for the AFSC logistics personnel located on-base. A keen historian, he will be expanding on Winston Churchill and his role and influence on the outcome of WWII.

The 2018 Living History Film Series is presented by Gold Sponsor Cassano's Pizza King and supported by The Boeing Company, Holiday Inn Dayton-Fairborn and the law firm Taft. Combining film screenings with dynamic speakers, veterans and film makers we bring aviation history to life for our visitors. Tickets are also available at the theatre's ticket counter, can be ordered online through our website afmuseum.com/livinghistory or by calling 937-253-4629.
