Catherine Wyler and Chris Henry
at the Air Force Museum Theatre

Dayton, Ohio – May 14, 2018: The Living History Film Series event for May will feature the film Memphis Belle (1990) and guest speakers producer Catherine Wyler and Chris Henry from the Experimental Aircraft Association (EAA) Aviation Museum, on May 19th at 4:30 p.m. at the Air Force Museum Theatre, located inside the National Museum of the U.S. Air ForceTM. Tickets are only $12 ($10 for Friends Members) and can be purchased here.

Memphis Belle is a fictionalization of the 1944 documentary The Memphis Belle: A Story of a Flying Fortress by Hollywood legend director William Wyler, Catherine's father. This film features an all-star cast with Matthew Modine, Eric Stoltz, D.B. Sweeney and Harry Connick, Jr. in leading roles. Catherine will introduce the film and Chris Henry, EAA Aviation Museum Programs Coordinator, will share his insight into what life was like for the B-17 crew members.

The 2018 Living History Film Series is presented by Gold Sponsor Cassano's Pizza King and supported by Holiday Inn Dayton-Fairborn and the law firm Taft. Combining film screenings with dynamic speakers, veterans and film makers we bring aviation history to life for our visitors. Tickets are also available at the theatre's ticket counter, can be ordered online through our website afmuseum.com/livinghistory or by calling 937-253-4629.
